Uncle Sam says it's all right

Uncle Sam, in the person of ten of his government officials, is always in charge of every department of our distillery. During the entire process of distillation, after the whiskey is stored in barrels in our warehouses, during the seven years it remains there, from the very grain we buy to the whiskey you get, Uncle Sam is constantly on the watch. We dare not take a gallon of our own whiskey from our own warehouse unless he says it's all right. And when he does say so, that whiskey goes direct to you, with all its original strength, richness and flavor, carrying a UNITED STATES REGISTERED DISTILLER'S GUARANTEE of PURITY and AGE, and saving the dealers' enormous profits. Sport in Private Clubs.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHICAGO, October 20.—Mayor itarrison, in answer to several queries in regard to public boxing in Chicago, reiterated that there would be no boxing this winter, except at clubs who could show a membership list. He said that the law against public boxing would be enforced, but intimated that the sport would be permitted at well regulated "privated" clubs. He expressed himself as follows on the situation:

Horse Talk.

The Roman, 2:00 1-4, has been retired at Chillicothe. O. He paid his expenses by winning £5,000 on the season at Philadelphia. The closing of the Jewett covered track will force some of the big stables to train in the South next winter.

The New Orleans Jockey Club have completed arrangements for an exhibition early in December, by Dan Patch against his mile record. As there will be harness as well as running races, the exhibition by Patch is in line with their plans.

Episcopal Convention Adopts a Compromise Canon on Remarriage Divorced Persons.

THE VOTE IS OVERWHELMING

If House of Bishops Concurs the New and Moré Strict Law Will Stand Three Years.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, MASS., October 20.—By an overwhelming majority a compromise canon on the remarriage of divorced persons was adopted by the House of Deputies of the Episcopal General Convention to-day, and if it is concurred in portant issue that has come before the present convention will be disposed of

The compromise measure, like the old law, permits the remarriage of the innolaw, permits the remarriage of the inno-cent person in a divorce for the cause of infidelity, but further provides that no remarriage shall be allowed within one year after a decree has been issued by a civil court. Satisfactory proof of the innocence of the applicant for re-marriage must be furnished in the shape of court records, and after the consent of the bishop is obtained a clergyman may refuse to perform such ceremony without subjecting himself to censure or discipline.

The opinion of Francis A. Lewis, of The opinion of Francis A. Lewis, of Philadelphia, a member of the Committee on Canons, who favored no remarriage of any divorced persons, but who accepted the compromise, the canon adopted to-day is so strict, that if endorsed by the bishops it will practically put the church as he expressed it, out of the divorce business.
